.....Important Class Information.....

- Registration is required. You will receive an email confirming attendance.
- The course is designed to provide attendees with information, tactics and options which we believe may be useful for various types of crimes perpetrated against women; this is not a martial arts course.
- Applicants must be female and at least 14 years of age.
- The course consists of three, 3-hour, evening classes in the Community Room at the Bentonville Police Department.
- The course includes hands-on physical training exercises. Wear comfortable clothes suitable for physical activity, such as gym or workout attire.
- Additional information will follow by email upon approval of the application.
