Agenda Items

1. Welcome guest: Shelli Kerr, City of Bentonville Comprehensive Planning Manager.
 - a. Shelli Kerr gave an overview of the upcoming 2020 Census.
 - i. In mid-March, households will begin receiving mail with detailed information on how to respond to the 2020 Census.
 - ii. There are three ways to participate in the 2020 Census.
 1. Residents can participate online, answer questions over the phone, or through the traditional paper form.
 - iii. An accurate count is critical to communities; any person living in a household as of April 1 needs to be counted.
 - iv. Responding to the census helps communities get funding they need and helps businesses make data-driven decisions that grow the economy.
 - v. The result of the census helps determine funding over the next ten years for our schools, roads, and many programs that serve our residents.
 1. With one person under count it could mean a loss of $28 million to City of Bentonville for over 10 years.
 - vi. By April 20, if responses have not been received, a census taker will be sent to homes to collect answers in person.
 - vii. The information provided from individuals is confidential.
 - viii. The 2020 Census website closes on September 18.
